

The Norwegian Council for Schools of Music and Performing Arts

SCHOOLS OF MUSIC AND PERFORMING ARTS IN NORWAY

Harry Rishaug Røros March 2009

The Norwegian Council for Schools of Music and Performing Arts

is an organisation for municipalities with public schools for music and performing arts

Municipal music and art schools

373 member schools of music and performing arts (409 municipalities)

Headquarters

June 5.th 1997: "The Law"

Education Act

Section 13-6.

All municipalities, either alone or in cooperation with other municipalities shall provide courses in music and other cultural activities for children and young people, organized in association with the school system
and local cultural life.

From the "The Cultural Leap" to

The Government's Declaration

The Government wants to give all children
the opportunity to join the Schools of Music and Performing Arts at a reasonable price.

The Committee of Culture and Education in The Nordic Council (3.12.08):

"The Committee would appreciate that the model of Schools of Music and Performing Arts in Norway in due time is spread to become national strategies throughout the Nordic Contries"

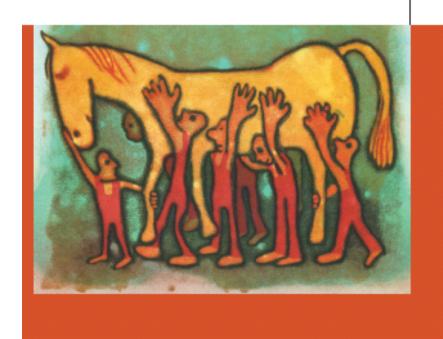

A National Strategy

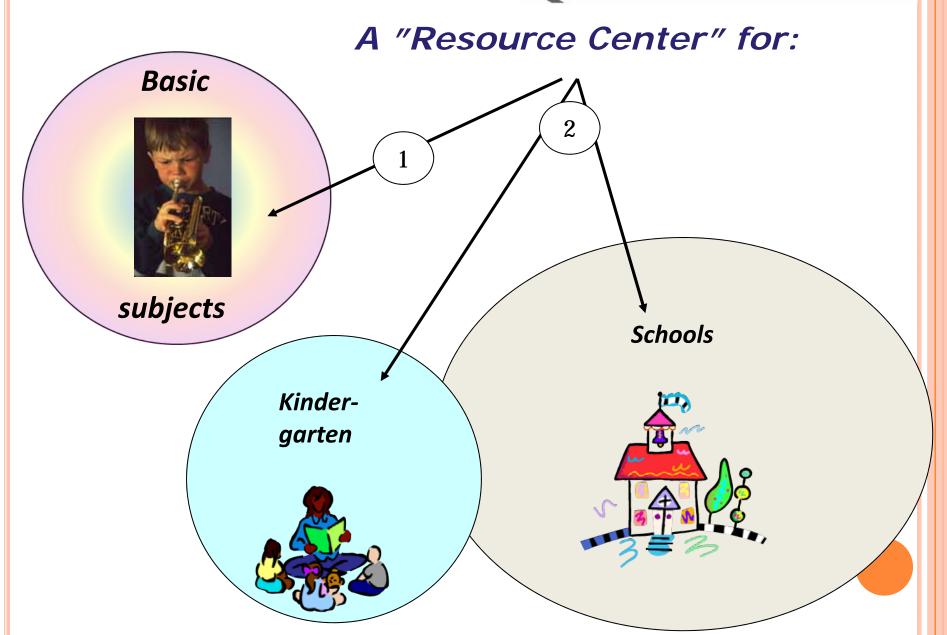

Stategic Plan

Creative Learning

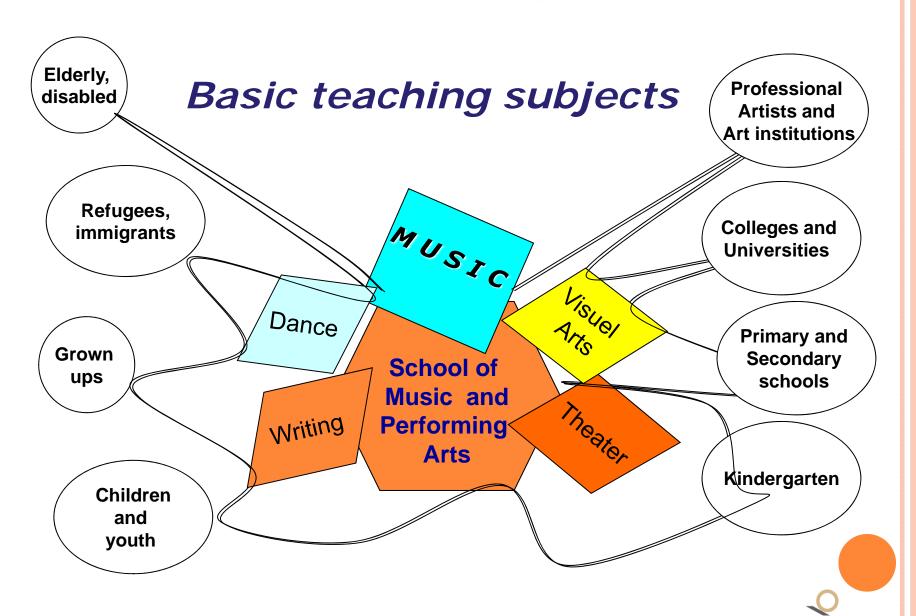

Strategy for Art and Culture in Education 2007 - 2010 June 2007

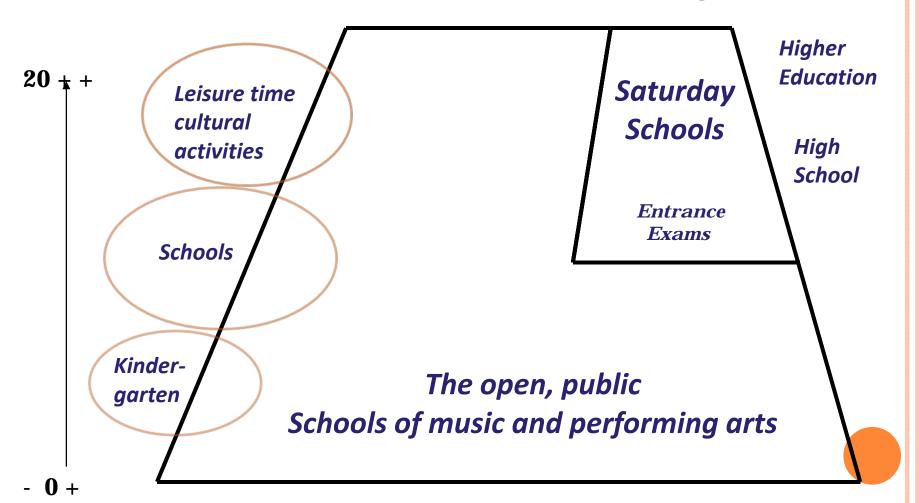

A "Norwegian Pyramid":

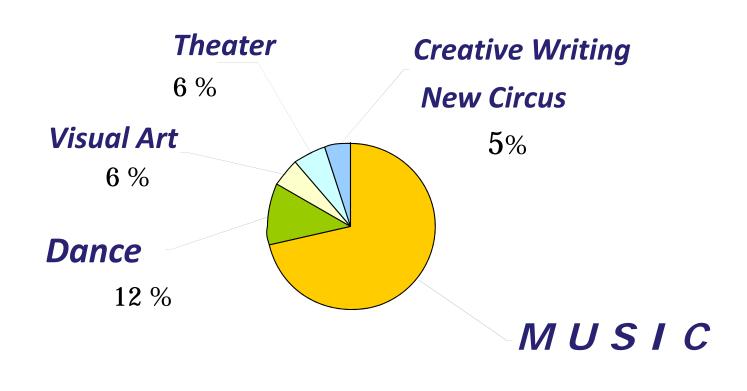

The Schools of Music and Performing Arts

71%

Music and art schools: subjects

NORSK KULTURSKOLERÅD

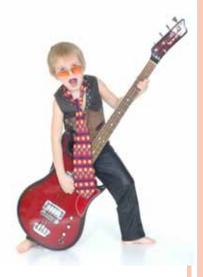

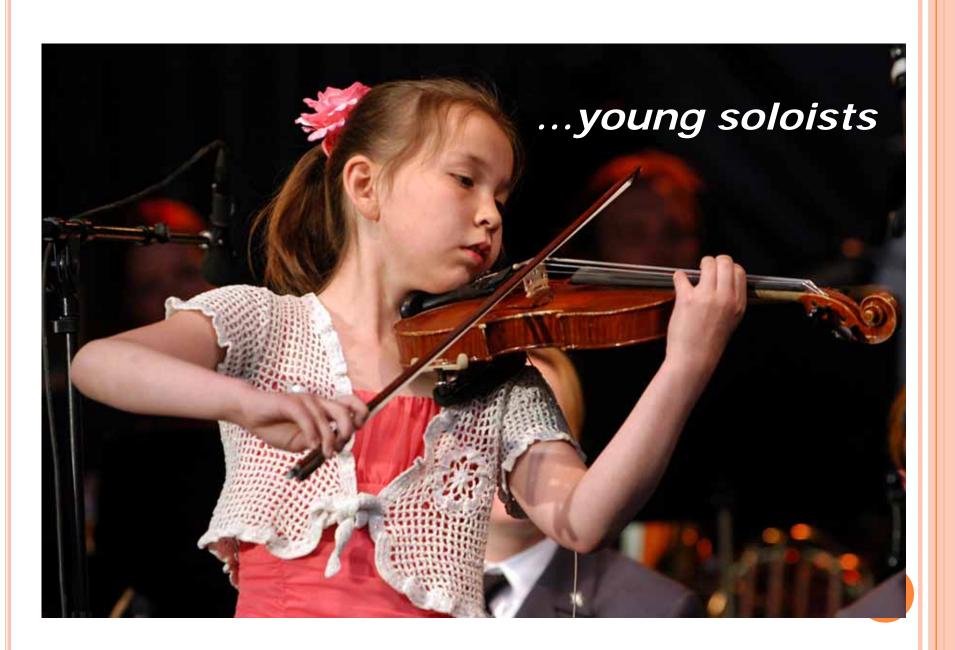

108 000 pupils (120 000 subjects)

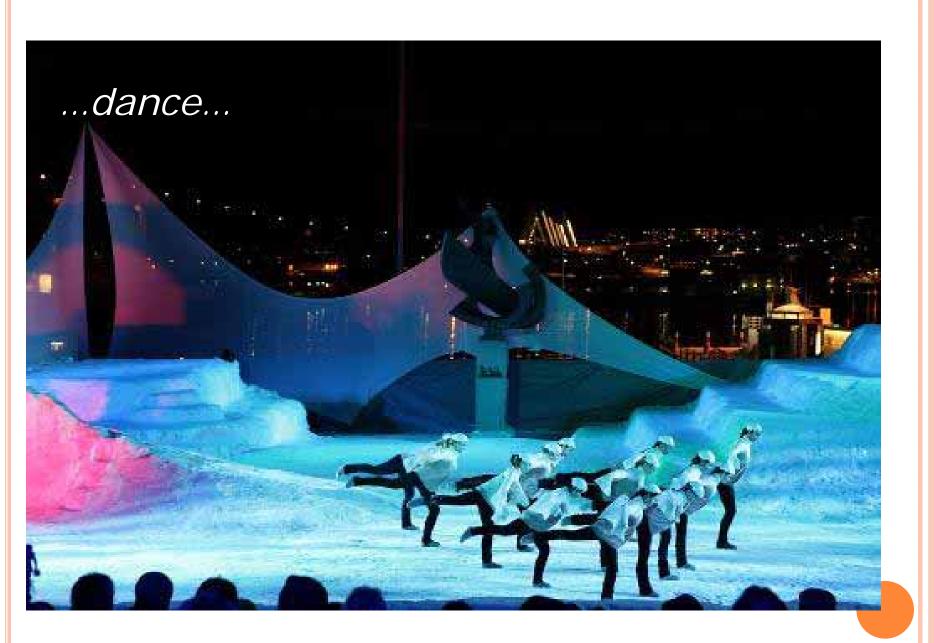

INTERNASJONAL COOPERATION

- EXCHANGE PROGRAMMES
- FRIENDSHIP TOWNS

(TRONDHEIM)

Palestine - Ramallah

The Council in cooperation with the Foreign Ministry

UMOJA —

Cultural Flying Carpet.

We truly believe that culture is an essential fundament in the development of a modern society.

Culture is magic!

Culture has the power to give us experiences that can make us fly as one.

The Council in cooperation with The National Broadcasting Company TV programme for 12 years:

The Council: Nordic and European cooperation

