

Day 1 – (public) Symposium „Research on ‘An Instrument for Every Child’: results and perspectives“
14:00	Welcome & Introduction	Jens Knigge & Anders Rønningen
14:10	“An Instrument for Every Child” (JeKi): Overview of didactic concept and research programme	Andreas Lehmann-Wermser
14:30	Presentation 1 – Constraints and conditions of instrumental tuition in compulsory schools	Sonja Nonte & Andreas Lehmann-Wermser
15:20	Presentation 2 – Features of the “An instrument for every child” programme based on the personal perspectives of elementary and music school teachers: cooperation – teaching quality – attribution	Anne Niessen
16:10	Coffee Break
16:40	Presentation 3 – Dropping Out or Staying in: Equality and Justice in the Participation in “An Instrument for Every Child”	Thomas Busch
17:30	Presentation 4 – An instrument for every child? Fostering Social Justice in and through Music Education	Valerie Krupp-Schleußner & Andreas Lehmann-Wermser
18:20	Presentation 5 – Researching the Self within “An Instrument for Every Child”: Self-Concepts, Self-Efficacy, and Self-Regulation	Thomas Busch
19:10	Summary	Jens Knigge & Anders Rønningen
20:00	Conference Dinner	